DREAMY HOMES FOR LONG, LAZY SUMMER DAYS

LIFE OF THEIR OWN The papers in the 'Living Walls' collection from Eurowalls are full of life, in line with the firm's maxim that the wall is a playground. They range from subtle designs to glittery damasks and vivacious leopard prints. eurowalls.com.au

A TOUCH OF TOILE Beloved for its bucolic vignettes, toile has been a traditional mainstay in home decor. Thibaut's 'Toile Portfolio', from Boyac, takes a fresh approach with its bright colours, fine sketching and pairing of antique prints with novel designs. boyac.com.au

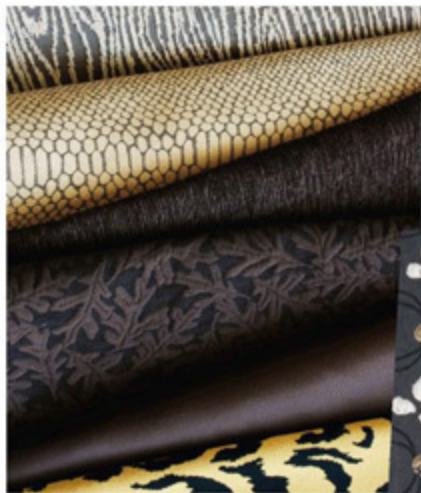

PICTURE THIS Create an individual look with Mr Perswall (left), a Swedish family company whose name stands for 'personal wallcoverings'. Choose from photowalls, murals and designed feature walls or upload your own pictures online and order them as a wallpaper. mrperswall.com.au

STYLE WITH TEXTURE Romo's 'Folia' (left) is a collection of semi-plain wallcoverings from Marco Fabrics. The subtle designs originate from natural textures such as mosaic, crackle glaze, bouclé and pleated rice paper. marcofabrics.com.au

Fabric and wallpaper to create a whole new look.

PURE POETRY Nina Campbell's 'Paradiso' collection (below) comprises elegant fabrics and wallpapers inspired by Dante's poetry and Renaissance Florence. It features romantic floral patterns as well as stripes and small-scale designs. senecatextiles.com.au

JUNGLE OUT THERE 'Urban Jungle' (above) is the latest collection from Perennials. The collection comprises 100 per cent solution-dyed acrylics that are ideal for outdoor use as they're highly resistant to UV damage. The six patterns include animal prints and a new Tuscan colourway. southpacificfabrics.com

ON THE EDGE 'Illusions Collection' by Carlucci offers rich designs inspired by new technologies and edgy finishes. The collection of papers and fabrics is intended to be mixed and matched, blending a whole range of different textures for a deep, layered look. uniquefabrics.com

RECORD HOLDER

LP records are part of the 'baroque n'roll' theme of 'Eco Studio', the new collection from Sweden's Eco Wallpaper. The brand is known for its youthful, fashion-conscious approach to wallcoverings, and the LP design has a vintage graphic feel to it. radfordfurnishings.com
