The Fine Print in California

Antique books, paper, prints, posters and the like converge at Voilà! in Los Angeles. Located inside another shop, the gallery offers a circa 1950 hand-painted Greek travel poster by Belgian artist Albert Detry, $3,600. Two of six first-edition prints by Maria Sibylla Merian from 1704 depict sea life for The Am-Asian Curiosity Cabinet by Georgius Everhardus Rumphius, $2,200 each.

Cagey Color

Four colorful oversize wrought iron cages from the 1960s add pizzazz to the assortment of vintage furniture and collectibles that Stripe (305-893-8085; www.stripe.furniture.com) has in its North Miami, Florida, store.

In the Fold

Deadwyler (804-351-3941; www.deadwylerantiques.com) shows a pair of circa 1850 Anglo-Indian folding veranda chairs, $4,900, of intricately carved rosewood with cane seats. The shop has exemplary furnishings from a range of periods.

Vase Time

Joe Nye New York at the Claremont showroom (212-486-7553; www.joeynie.com) offers three Qing Dynasty pieces, $2,800 each. The 1890s vases, in orange and white, are rarer than those in a blue-and-white palette.

Beyond Baskets

Japanese bamboo art flourishes in Santa Fe at TAI Gallery (505-984-1387; www.taigallery.com). Metamorphosis, creatively woven from madate, a type of bamboo, and rattan, is a recent sculpture from Syozya Honda, $11,000.
