Spring!

Oscar de la Renta's Chelsea Seat from the Chatsworth Collection for Century. Beverly Hall Furniture Galleries, (404) 261-7580; beverlyhall.com.

"For inspiration, I find that nothing rivals travel. Some favorite sites in the South not to be missed: Dumbarton Oaks near Washington, D.C.; Biltmore House and Gardens in Asheville, North Carolina; and Charleston, South Carolina's courtyard-style gardens. Local garden and home tours are also a great source of inspiration." Druid Hills Tour of Homes, April 20-22; druidhills.org. Inman Park Tour of Homes, April 28-29.

Do you have commitment phobia? With Santa Barbara Designs' latest umbrella—featuring reversible outdoor fabric—you can have it two ways. Available through Logan Gardens, ADAC, (404) 261-9101, logangardens.com.

Sixty percent of Atlanta's natural tree cover has been removed over the last 20 years.

"Currently, my clients and I are really into trees! Preserving and enhancing Atlanta's tree canopy is so important whether in your own back yard or supporting one of Atlanta's great parks, such as The Grant Park Conservancy." gpcconservancy.org

Georgia Native Plant Society's 2007 Plant of the Year: the Virginia Sweetspire (Itea virginica), whose common name comes from its fragrant white flowers borne in graceful racemes in late spring. gnps.org

"Holy Mackerel!" is the latest outdoor fabric from Perennials' Aquaria Collection. Through Grizzel & Mann, ADAC, (404) 261-5932.

McKinnon & Harris' scalloped Gilliam tray table in Lancaster Blue will add drama to any drab outdoor space. To the trade at Logan Gardens.
