"... THE ONE PERPETUAL MOMENT OF BEACH-TIME, THE NOW-AND-ALWAYS OF IT."
