ARTFUL LIVING

REAL ESTATE: SIGNS OF LIFE!

WHAT'S NEW

BRITISH INVASION

The principals behind a lauded U.K. furniture brand have stepped into their own with Lennegan & Marantz, which manufactures and sells beautifully handcrafted English furniture and stocks Belgian linen and Bennison prints in which to outfit them. At the American Wing, 2415 Montauk Hwy, Bridgehampton, (631) 613-6434, lenneganandmarantz.com

THE HOT SEAT

Furniture by From The Source, such as the Perch bar stool, is made with reclaimed or sustainable plantation-grown teak. $275 at Homenature, 6 Main St, Southampton, 631-287-6277, homenature.com.

THE NEW KUBU CLOTH

Clodagh, known by her peers for her design acumen and unrelenting wanderlust, infused her first collection for Perennials with references to Africa. Its solution-dyed acrylic yarn means you can take it from the backyard to the bush and beyond! Available to the trade through David Suterland, (D&D Building), 979 Third Ave, NYC, (212) 871-9717, or perennialsfabrics.com

GET READY TO RUMPLE

Now you can get the super-soft rumpled feel of Steven Alan's famous cotton shirts again and again. The label is now selling jugs of its house-brand detergent (which is never tested on animals), with a fragrance of yuzu, Turkish rose, lily-of-the-valley and sweet musk. $45 for 64 ounces and reusable laundry bag, 52 Newtown Ln, East Hampton, (631) 604-1726, stevenalan.com
